Required: Attach a copy of a receipt or other proof of purchase for each product purchased (you may redact unrelated transactions and all but the first four and last four digits of any account number, if you wish).

2) Reimbursed Fraudulent Charges

Did you also have fraudulent charges to a credit or debit card account that were reversed or repaid? If so, in addition to your out-of-pocket expenses, you are eligible to claim a $25 cash payment for each debit or credit card on which fraudulent charges were made and reversed or repaid, to compensate for lost time associated with seeking reimbursement for the fraud. (See Section 2.1 of the Settlement Agreement.)

Required: For each card, provide a card statement or other documentation showing (1) one or more fraudulent charges were posted to your account that you believe were caused by the Forever 21 Security Incident, and (2) the charges were later reversed or reimbursed by the bank or credit card company (you may redact unrelated transactions and all but the first four and last four digits of any account number, if you wish).

3) Extraordinary Expenses

If you have expenses related to the Security Incident that are more than the value or different than the type of ordinary expenses covered in the categories in Sections 1 and 2 above, you may be entitled to compensation for your extraordinary expenses. To obtain reimbursement under this category, you must attest to the following:

I incurred out-of-pocket unreimbursed expenses that occurred more likely than not as a result of the Security Incident during the time period from April 13, 2017, through March 21, 2022, other than those expenses covered by one or more of the categories above, and I made reasonable efforts to avoid, or seek reimbursement for, the loss—including exhausting all available credit monitoring insurance and identity theft insurance.

I incurred unreimbursed fraudulent charges between April 13, 2017, and March 21, 2022, due to the Forever 21 Security Incident.

Examples: Fraudulent charges that were made on your credit or debit card account and that were not reversed or repaid even though you reported them to your bank or credit card company. Note: most banks are required to reimburse customer in full for fraudulent charges on payment cards that they issue.

Required: The bank statement or other documentation reflecting the fraudulent charges, as well as documentation reflecting the fact that the charge was fraudulent (you may redact unrelated transactions and all but the first four and last four digits of any account number, if you wish). If you do not have anything in writing reflecting the fact that the charge was fraudulent (e.g., communications with your bank or a police report), please identify the approximate date that you reported the fraudulent charge, to whom you reported it, and the response.
